The exclusive location of this property, just metres from the pristine beach and reserve it borders is truly world class by any standards.

Situated within arguably the very best quarter of its coveted, tightly held subdivision. One would think that the few fortunate residents of this enclave host their own sensational pristine, family friendly, white sand beach. Being here it really does feel like that.

Both from the home and the beach the diverse views over Norfolk Bay and Fredrick Henry Bay and far beyond display the absolute very best of our states natural beauty, they really must be experienced first-hand to be fully appreciated, they are simply sensational.

The home itself isn't pretentious. It's from a time when one
