

58 George Street New Norfolk TAS

3  1  1

Originally there were eight workers cottages all in a row, then along came a bulldozer in the 1960s, now there are just two. Saved from the blade by a citizen concerned for our heritage.

I am proud to now be selling No58 George Street, built in 1900 this delightful and versatile home offers dual zoning (residential/general business) thus offering potential for a business premises in the heart of New Norfolk or a home that allows you to easily walk to all the shops and services of the genteel hamlet of New Norfolk known for its antique and brick a brack shops and award winning eateries.

Step through the red door of this period property into a generous three bedroom home that enjoys all the benefits
